The Broadest Scope of Coverage in a Single Resource

Spanning more than 500 years of political, military, social, and cultural history, Facts On File's American History Online database revolutionizes the way students and researchers can explore the different facets of American history, with a user-friendly interface and award-winning content. Almost 800 historical videos make the learning process more visual and accessible. A dictionary tool with more than 34,000 entries makes it easy for users to look up unfamiliar words within articles. Unique Learning Centers pull forward handpicked entries within each major era, serving as ideal starting points for research. Each Learning Center and each record features a persistent record link, which teachers can use to lead students to a specific area of study. Users can search entries by keyword or phrase; browse by topic or time period, corresponding to major eras in American history; and search Biographies by occupation and Primary Sources by type. Full citations are available throughout, and users can print, copy, and save content to a folder.

The authoritative, curriculum-based content is culled from many acclaimed Facts On File print titles. By providing the most comprehensive range of information in one complete resource—subject entries, biographies, primary sources, images and videos, maps and charts, timelines—American History Online offers a virtual library of American history for students and researchers of all ages.
